Fluency Progression

Sounds
Students hear, identify, blend, and segment individual sounds automatically.

Words
Students connect sounds to letters and read words accurately and efficiently.

Phrases
Students group words together, helping reading sound more natural and less choppy.

Sentences
Students read complete sentences smoothly, keeping meaning in mind as they read.

Passages or Stories
Students read connected text with accuracy, automaticity, and expression so comprehension can flow.